Nau mai, haere mai ki te Kura o Otari

Wellington City Mission 'Pack The Bus' is visiting us on Thursday. It would be wonderful if every child could bring an item to donate. See list at the end of the newsletter for items that the Mission would love to collect.

Camp Meeting for Yr 6/7 parents/caregivers is on TONIGHT, 6.00pm in Ngaio.

EPro8 Challenge - Congratulations to Otis Cloutman, Thomas Warburton, Sky Gobbi and Anton Luatua who came 1st place in today's semi-final challenge. Well done! The group will compete in the final on Friday morning.

Book Day: Thursday 1 December - This is a day to celebrate books and the enjoyment of reading. Children are invited to dress up as a character from a book. During the day there will be a variety of book related events throughout the day. These will be advertised in posters around the school and confirmed in the newsletter next week.

Te Whenu Arareo Māori - Poroporoaki ki ngā tamariki Tau 8. Māori Immersion Strand - Poroporoaki for the Year 8 tamariki. Nau mai e ngā whānau ki te whakanui i ngā paetae o ā tātou tamariki Tau 8 ka tīmata i tā rātou kuraina i ngā kura teitei hei te tau 2017. All whānau are welcome and encouraged to join us, in celebrating the success of our Year 8 tamariki, who will be starting their high school journeys in 2017.

Te Taonga Horomata: Matatau. Our virtue is Perceptiveness

Perceptiveness is clarity of insight. It is being observant of what is beneath the surface and looking for deeper meaning. When we are perceptive, our understanding is intuitive and discerning. We slow down into awareness. We perceive the nuances of meaning in an idea or a situation.
